Date: 8/26/2015

Vehicle vs Pedestrian crash (MLK between Walton Ave and North Ave)

At approximately 8:42 a.m. on 8/26/2015 officers of the Tarpon Springs Police Department responded to the area of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr Blvd (MLK) and Walton Ave in reference to a vehicle vs pedestrian crash.

Preliminary investigation information is that the pedestrian stepped off the median (Raised and lined with trees) into the path of a 2008 Gray/Black Mini Cooper which was traveling eastbound on MLK and was struck.

The pedestrian (18 yo, B/M) has been taken by Bay Flight to Bay Front Medical Center for treatment, will update with status once known. The driver of the Mini Cooper (20 yo, W/M) was not injured.

Names of those involved are not being released at this time; this crash is currently under investigation.
