MEDIA RELEASE

Tarpon Springs Police Department is investigating the theft of a City of Tarpon Springs Building Maintenance Department pickup truck.

At approx. 6:52 a.m. this morning officers responded to Lowes located at 41800 US 19 N, where a White 4/D 2007 Ford F150 pickup truck (yellow City Tag XA4923) with the City of Tarpon Springs seal on drivers side and passenger side doors was stolen from the loading area. The vehicle was left unattended with the keys in the ignition (not running) while City worker was picking up materials for the City. On the video surveillance an unknown male comes up on a bicycle and enters the vehicle, steals the vehicle and heads north out of the Lowes parking lot. The bicycle was left behind, and is being processed as evidence.

Lowes is in the process of obtaining the surveillance video, once available it will be sent out to try to help identify this individual. Photos below are still images taken from video.

If anyone has information regarding this incident please contact Tarpon Springs Police Department Detectives at (727)938-2849.

Respectfully,

Major Jeffrey P. Young
